

WORKING PLAN / WEEK TWO MILESTONE

Working Journal Definition

Bring together your Week Two decisions. You can type directly into the shaded spaces in the DOCX or print the PDF and write by hand.

WORKING TITLE (OPTIONAL) _____

01 Your central message

What biblical truth or spiritual concern will connect your 30 daily entries?

02 Your intended readers

Who might particularly benefit from this journal, and what are they facing or seeking?

03 Your desired reader outcome

What understanding, personal reflection, and response do you hope to encourage?

These statements give your journal direction. You may refine them as you study Scripture, plan the entries, and draft the manuscript.

SOURCE MATERIALS / DECISIONS FOR LATER

Materials & Next Steps

Record promising starting points, not every source you own. Your detailed Material Inventory can stay in your Journal Project Organizer.

04 Promising source materials

Select three to five notes, Scripture leads, experiences, or questions that may serve your message.

MATERIAL / SCRIPTURE / IDEA	POSSIBLE CONTRIBUTION OR NEXT STEP

05 Material needing more development

What should you study, clarify, verify, or expand before you use it?

06 Decisions for later

Record choices that are not required to finish this week's definition.

DECISION OR QUESTION	WHEN TO REVISIT

WEEK TWO FINISH LINE

Check that your message, readers, and desired outcome fit the same book. Save this in Journal Plan. Next: experiment with Scripture-led and experience-led writing in Week Three.
